VOLCANO PROMISES TO BE A PRODUCER

MANY OUTFITS AT WORK ALREADY IN NEW DISTRICT NORTH OF TONOPAH

"There are now about fifty men in Volcano district," said Charles Taylor last evening upon returning from a visit to his holdings there. In which he is associated with Nick Abieman. "While we were tarrying in this nearby camp there were nine other autos there, all from Tonopah, and teams were coming in loaded with outfit. Among today's permanent arrivals were Al Wardell, Charles Coble, Jack Williams, Bill Thompson and others whose names I cannot recall. Tents are springing up in all directions and discharges of dynamite make one think it is the Fourth of July or that we are on the battle front.

"The main prospect is looking about the same. The ledge is becoming wider and more regular and I think that it fully retains its surface values. The owners are going after it accurately and say that they will either show it up or dig it out. They have now 25 sacks of selected specimen gold ore which they expect to net them from $5,000 to $7,000 a ton. They also have a considerable dump of born silver ore that they think will run from $200 to $500 a ton.

"A considerable camp is being established at the spring, a mile and a half from the original strike. I learned yesterday that a prospector had gotten an assay of $150 from rock broken from a cropping not far from the spring. Practically all the ground is held by Tonopah people and some half dozen outfits are at work in addition to what is being done by individual prospectors. Everybody at Volcano prophesies that the camp will be a hummer."

ASSESSED VALUE OF CORPORATION REDUCED

TAX COMMISSION LOSES SUIT IN DISTRICT COURT OF NYE COUNTY

The Nevada Telephone-Telegraph company scored a victory over the Nevada Tax Commission at yesterday in a decision rendered by Judge Averill in the fifth judicial district court. The contention of the plaintiff was that the valuation placed upon its property in 1913 by the Nevada tax commission was excessive and that a fundamentally wrong principle was applied to this corporation's property in fixing the valuation. Incidentally it was also claimed that there was a slight error in the division of value between Nye and Esmeralda counties. It was claimed that the commission failed to take into consideration the "life expectancy" of the corporation and predicated its finding of valuation almost wholly, if not wholly, upon a capitalization of net earnings.

The case was tried without a jury. The court reached a conclusion that the valuation of the property of the plaintiff company for taxation purposes in Nye county for 1913 should have been $34,704.71 and that each side should bear its own costs, wherefore judgment was entered accordingly.

The company had been assessed by the assessor at slightly over $17,000.

A large audience witnessed the production of "The Price She Paid" last evening and everyone was really agreeably surprised and very much pleased with the performance, for the company as a whole showed that they were all artists in their line. In fact, the show went so well last night, that Mr. Claman, manager of the company, asked if he could put on another bill tonight which he would guarantee would be equally as good, and as Tonopah is not favored with an attraction of this kind very often, and at this price, the Butler management thought it would be a

NO COTTON FROM EGYPT

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, May 7.—Great Britain has requested the government of Egypt to prohibit the export of cotton to all other ports than French, Russian, Spanish and Portuguese.

for its Nye county holdings, and the tax commission increased the valuation for assessment purposes, to $40,000. The telephone company protested and objected to the increase as unwarranted and greatly in excess of the actual value of the property; that the entire property, one-half of which is in Nye county, could be bought for considerably less than the value on which it was asked to pay taxes. The tax commission was obdurate and finally the company, through H. R. Cooke, its attorney, brought suit to have the assessment declared void as to excess. Judge Averill, in the decision just rendered, sustains the contentions of the company to the extent of holding the assessment void and excessive, in part, and reduces the value of the company's property in Nye county, for assessment purposes, from $40,000 as fixed by the tax commission, to the sum of $34,704.71. As the telephone company paid its taxes under protest, the decision means that the county will now have to refund the portion collected in error on the excess. The decision will probably dispose of a number of similar suits now pending in Esmeralda county, as the facts would be the same there.

ROAD SHOW GIVES TO TONOPAHNS A TREAT

VERY CREDIBLE PRODUCTION OF "THE PRICE SHE PAID" AT THE BUTLER

Just why Tonopah has for so long a time been deprived of the pleasure of witnessing a production by a good road show is not easily explained. The delight in again seeing real people upon a real stage last evening was repaid by splendid box office receipts. The Butler theater did not contain a vacant chair last evening when the curtain rose and a number of people were standing in the rear of the house.

The bill was "The Price She Paid," produced by the Eastern Play company. This is a problem play, vital and compelling in its interest. It narrates the experiences of a self-sacrificing and talented girl, with a high moral sense, who, to save her selfish and pleasure seeking relatives, enters into a compact to sacrifice herself in the event that she is unable through her art to relieve their necessities and provide for their luxuries. The dialogue is the portion of the play that is most compelling in its interest, the action playing but a secondary part. Gladys Fuller faithfully portrays the part of the inhumane and heartless mother, Bonnie Bernard, the leading woman, is "the woman" of the play. Her talent was recognized last night when handsome flowers were tendered her by an appreciative auditor. Dorothy Mitchell, a brilliant young elocutionist of Spokane, gave pleasing humor to the play. B. Claman, the leading man, exercised the pose and poise so necessary to his difficult part, one in which he emerged from brutal self-seeking to kindly charity. Otis Eaton successfully portrayed the part of the spendthrift brother, whose misdeeds nearly caused his sister to pay a terrible price. "The man with the heart," Val Howland, showed sincerity, integrity and honest love which met with their reward.

Owing to the demand for another opportunity to hear and see this company, Manager Smith has granted it the use of the Butler theater again this evening. The bill will be that sweetest and purest of modern comedies, that ever popular "Peg O' My Heart."

Tonopah Lodge No. 57, L. O. O. M., will give its third annual ball on Wednesday, May 12th. The public is assured a good time for all who attend. The best music available has been obtained for the occasion. The following committee is in charge of arrangements: C. T. Harding, Van Halberg, S. S. May, E. J. Ruyey and Fred Stern—AdvMS-12.

reference to the present manner of collecting garbage at the rear of premises. The doctor came to the conclusion that whilst householders were allowed to throw tins and vegetable matters out at the back of their premises, it was not merely safety by placing the same in garbage cans, unless a tight fitting cover were used to exclude flies, which are the greatest evil where unsatisfactory conditions prevail.

The commissioners listened to these remarks and pointed out that if any action were taken in this matter to install a flush system, which incidentally was suggested, together with the matter of toilets to be used by two or more families in community, the cost would be too great to entertain, and that the householders concerned would be greatly opposed to the scheme, as they were now up in arms against the high rate of taxation. They thereupon referred the doctor to the health officer, saying that they could do nothing unless a recommendation originated from him. Dr. Richards promised to look into the matter. In conclusion Dr. Owen pointed out that the present scheme of deodorizing the vaults was suicidal as the majority of the alleged germicides now used were simply deodorants. Should the grievance not be remedied before the conclusion of the present sitting of the board, several residents in the vicinity particularly affected will remove to Manhattan and the matter will be referred to the state board of health.

Brown, attorney for the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad, a neatly printed brief embracing the proceedings before the interstate commerce commission which includes twenty-two rate cases. The brief consists of 106 pages and is printed on an excellent grade of paper and carefully bound. It is a typographical triumph, printed like a "best seller."

PASTIME THEATER

"The Making of Bobbie Burnitt," which was shown to good houses yesterday, together with a two-reel Pathe play entitled "The Lost Heir," will be the bill again today. Edward Abeles as Bobbie Burnitt plays a part that seems to be especially adapted for him. The play is a most ingenious mixing of business and romance. Burnitt, left a fortune by his father, invests it quickly in a couple of ventures that appear of a doubtful nature, but with the aid of his fiancée, who likewise has invested heavily, he manages in a clever way to recover both their fortunes and put "Brightlight Electric" and "Trimmer's Combined Stores," in which they had sunk their money, on their feet, ousting their crooked associates from the concerns, fortune again smiles and all is lovely. The performances today are for the benefit of Miss Vera Bowler, contestant for a free trip to the S. F. fair, given by the Reno Gazette. Edward Abeles will be seen tomorrow in his original role in "Brewster's Millions," that famous comedy that starts with a ripple and ends with a roar.
